Dear Prof/Dr/Mr/Mrs. Emmanuel Agung Nugroho,

Thank you for submitting the manuscript, "Yarn Inspection and Sorting System Using Robotic Vision and Machine Learning" to IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI), ISSN/e-ISSN 2089-4872/2252-8938. This journal is indexed in Scopus (<https://www.scopus.com/sourceid/21100901206>) and all published papers since the 2018 issues have been included in scopus.com. This journal has been included in the SCImago Journal Rank (<https://www.scimagojr.com/journalsearch.php?q=21100901206&tip=sid&clean=0>) since 2020 (or since SJR 2019). The IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI) has an SJR of 0.402 (Q2), SNIP of 0.845, and a CiteScore of 3.4. With the online journal management system that we are using, you will be able to track its progress through the editorial process by logging in to the journal web site:

When contacting us, please always include your paper ID number in the subject line of your email.

Attention Please!

1. Please try to adhere to the format as closely as possible. Please carefully read our most recent manuscript submission guidelines (<https://iaescore.com/gfa/ijai.docx>).
2. Add the names of all authors (by Edit Metadata), and please provide active or valid emails, as well as author identifiers and academic social network profiles, such as Google Scholar, ORCID, Scopus, and Web of Science ResearcherID (formerly Publons). You can also add your Academia.edu, ResearchGate, LinkedIn, Loop, and other profiles. Please keep in mind that if you do not supply complete, identical, and correct identities between the metadata and the actual document, your article will be rejected!!
3. A high quality paper should have:
  - a) a clear statement of the problem the paper is addressing;
  - b) the proposed solution(s); and
  - c) results achieved. It describes clearly what has been done before on the problem, and what is new. Please clearly state the three points listed above in your updated paper.
4. The number of minimum references for an original research paper is 25 (and at least 20 recently journal articles); and the number of minimum references for a review paper is 50 (and at least 40 recently journal articles).

At this stage, it is critical that you adhere to every detail of the IAES format. Otherwise, we will reject your paper.

When contacting us, please always include your paper ID number in the subject line of your email.

Thank you for considering this journal as a venue for your work.

Best Regards,
Prof. Dr. Eugene Yu-Dong Zhang
IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI)

NOTE: A single author is NOT preferred in this journal, except come from qualified researcher (min WoS/Scopus h-index: 15). We would like to publish high quality papers of a research group. Paper with single author normally will be REJECTED.

::: Checklist for updating your paper for review :::

- 1). For research paper, It is mandatory to present your final paper according to the "IMRADC style" format, i.e.:
1. INTRODUCTION
  2. The Proposed Method/Algorithm/Procedure specifically designed (optional)
  3. METHOD
  4. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION
  5. CONCLUSION
- See <http://iaescore.com/gfa/ijai.docx>

Introduction section explains the context of the study and states the precise objective, and was presented within 3-8 paragraphs. Suggested structure of an introduction section is:

- a). Introductory paragraph (usually one or two paragraphs):
  - Give a general introduction to the topic for a broad audience
  - Narrow the focus to your particular topic
  - State your research problem and aims
- b). Literature review (usually several paragraphs):
  - Summarize the relevant literature on your topic
  - Describe the current state of the art
  - Note any gaps in the literature that your study will address
- c). Research targets (usually one paragraph):
  - Briefly describe how you will accomplish your aims
  - Give a preview and state the contribution of the work

Method section- The experimental/method section is a straightforward description of what you did in your research and how you did it, clear and detailed at every stage. A detailed method section will make your article reproducible by other researchers, allowing them to trust and build on your work.

- A detailed explanation of all methodologies, instruments, materials, procedures, measurements, and other variables used in the investigation.
- A thorough description of the data analysis and decisions for excluding some data and including others.

Results and discussion section: The manner of the results presentation should be clear and uncomplicated. This section summarizes the most relevant findings, providing statistical analysis results as appropriate and comparisons to other study findings. Figure results should not be repeated in tables. This is the section in which the author(s) should explain in detail what he/she/they uncovered throughout their investigation. It should be well-organized and in a logical order. This section should be supported by appropriate references.

If you have updated version, please submit it using the same paper ID number as the author version through our online system.

- 2). Please ensure that all references have been cited in your text. Use a tool such as EndNote, Mendeley, or Zotero for reference management and formatting, and choose IEEE style. Each citation should be written in the order of appearance in the text in square brackets. For example, the first citation [1], the second citation [2], and the third and fourth citations [3], [4]. When citing multiple sources at once, the preferred method is to list each number separately, in its own brackets, using a comma or dash between numbers, as such: [1], [3], [5]. It is not necessary to mention an author's name, pages used, or date of publication in the in-text citation [6]-[8]. Instead, refer to the source with a number in a square bracket, e.g. [9], that will then correspond to the full citation in your reference list. Examples of in-text citations:

This theory was first put forward in 1970 [9].

Zadeh [10] has argued that ...

Several recent studies [7], [9], [11]-[15] have suggested that....

... end of the line for my research [16].

We usually expect a minimum of  $2n+9$  references (for original research papers) and  $4n+18$  (for review/survey papers) primarily to journal articles, where  $n$  = page length of your papers (in simple words, for 8 pages, the number of references is min 25 for research papers and 50 entries for review/study papers). Citations from textbooks should be used very rarely, and citations to web pages should be avoided. All cited papers should be referenced within the text of the manuscript.

Please present all references as completely as possible and in IEEE style (including DOIs, volume, number, pages, and so on).

Dear Prof/Dr/Mr/Mrs: Emmanuel Agung Nugroho,

We have reached a decision regarding your submission entitled "Yarn Inspection and Sorting System Using Robotic Vision and Machine Learning" to IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI), a Scopus indexed journal (<https://www.scopus.com/sourceid/21100901206>). This journal is indexed by Scopus/Scimagojr, with a SJR of 0.341 (2020), Q2 under Electrical and Electronic Engineering, and Information Systems and Management categories.

Our decision is revisions required.

Please revise your manuscript according to the reviewers' comments. In a response letter that should be sent with your re-submission, you should talk about each of the reviewers' points. Please also adhere to every detail of the guide of the authors (MS Word: <http://iaescore.com/gfa/ijai.docx>, or LaTeX: <http://iaescore.com/gfa/ijai.rar>), and check it for spelling and grammatical mistakes. The goal of your revised paper is to present a polished paper that shows all of your new ideas and results (novel technical results) on the topic.

In preparing your final paper, you should pay attention to our guidelines (<https://ijai.iaescore.com/index.php/IJAI/about/editorialPolicies#custom-5>).

Pay attention: Avoid author self-citations, as well as this journal and the publisher's self-citations!

Please submit your revised paper within ten (10) weeks via our online system, in the REVIEW tab, by uploading the author version. After uploading your revised paper, please notify the editor and respond to the reviewers' and editors' comments point-by-point.

I look forward to hearing from you.
Thank you

Reviewer A:

- Figure 5 and the subfigure must be mentioned in the body text before it appears.
  - Too many self author citations. Please reduce it into max 5 references.
  - Provide the links of the researchers social media accounts of the authors as complete as possible: Scopus, ORCID (required), Google Scholar, and Web of Science (WoS).

Reviewer L:

Overall this paper is well written, there are only a few notes of improvement as follows:

- In the INTRODUCTION section, it should be written as a paragraph(s) rather than in bullet points, in order to align with standard academic writing style. You can refer to journal guidelines.
  - In BIOGRAPHIES OF AUTHORS, provide all of the authors' active email address.

-- Paper ID# 29777

-- Please strictly adhere to the final checklist:

<http://ijai.iaescore.com/index.php/IJAI/about/editorialPolicies#custom-5>

-- Authors should include the research grant or contract number.

-- Submit your final paper along with a similarity report to email:

Pay attention: Avoid author self-citations, as well as this journal and the publisher's self-citations!

Dear Prof/Dr/Mr/Mrs. Emmanuel Agung Nugroho,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that your paper entitled "Yarn Inspection and Sorting System Using Robotic Vision and Machine Learning" is initially ACCEPTED and will be published in the forthcoming issue of the IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI), a Scopus indexed journal (see: <https://www.scopus.com/sourceid/21100901206>). Congratulations!!

After completing all publication requirements and strictly adhering to the guidelines found at <http://ijai.iaescore.com/index.php/IJAI/about/editorialPolicies#custom-5>, your paper will be eligible for publication. The presentation of the simulation and/or experimental setup in the Method section must be clear and comprehensive, ensuring that other scientists can reproduce your work. Include a visual representation of your simulation and/or experimental setup and provide a thorough description of your work. Please note that, according to international regulations, the similarity score of your camera-ready paper should be less than 20%. The editor(s) will determine whether your camera-ready paper is complete and adheres to the final guidelines. Make sure to present each reference as comprehensively as possible, adhering to IEEE style, which includes the volume, issue number, page numbers, and DOIs. Additionally, pay close attention to the Acknowledgment, Funding, and CREDIT sections of our new TEMPLATE (<https://iaescore.com/gfa/ijai.docx>). Failure to make proper revisions may result in delays in the publication of your paper.

Submit your documents below.

1. Final camera-ready paper (in MS Word or LATEX source files)
  2. Report on similarity (via iThenticate or Turnitin)
  3. Payment proof
- within 30 days by replying to this email address (ijai@iaesjournal.com).

Pay attention: Avoid author self-citations, as well as this journal and the publisher's self-citations!

Authors should provide the research grant or contract number in the funding section. It should be noted that many funding agencies and research institutions require grant and fellowship acknowledgement. As a result, a funding acknowledgement statement should be included in the publication for all research studies. Whether the money was partial or full, any relevant grant numbers should be included.

When you send in all of the above documents and your final paper follows all of the final instructions, your paper will be judged "fully accepted." It will be the date of your paper's acceptance.

Your cooperation is very appreciated

Sincerely yours,
Prof. Dr. Eugene Yu-Dong Zhang

This journal is open access. Why publish open access? IAES open access authors benefit from the following: quality, established and reputable journal, reaching key audiences with 5 million users per month, high citations, etc. So, the open access fee is paid by the authors, or on their behalf, to support the cost of wide open access dissemination of research results; to pay deposit to CrossRef in order for each published article to have a Digital Object Identifier (DOI); to manage the various costs associated with handling and editing of the submitted manuscripts; and the journal management and publication in general.

In order to cover part of the publication cost, each accepted paper (collaboration between two or more authors) is charged USD 455. This charge is for the first 8 pages, and any published manuscript over 8 pages will incur extra charges of USD50 per page. A single author is prohibited. If Author Force is the sole author, the publication fee is double the normal fee (USD 910 for the first 8 pages, and if any published manuscript over 8 pages will incur extra charges of USD 100 per page). Indonesian authors must pay in IDR. Please visit xe.com for money exchange rates.

The payment should be made by bank transfer (T/T):

There is one weakness that should be revised immediately:
- There is reference in local in citation [23], it would be better to replace it with international or English journal.

Dear Editor,

Thank you for your suggestion. We hereby confirm that the final version of the manuscript entitled "Yarn Inspection and Sorting System Using Robotic Vision and Machine Learning" has been submitted as requested. In addition, we have conducted a similarity check and attached the similarity report to this email.

Based on the plagiarism detection report generated on January 23, 2026, the manuscript shows an overall similarity index of 5.1%.

We believe that this similarity level is well within acceptable limits for academic publication and complies with ethical standards for originality and proper referencing.

The final manuscript and the similarity report have been submitted via email in accordance with your instructions. Should any further clarification or additional documentation be required, we would be pleased to provide it.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Thank you for the information regarding the publication fee.

We would like to kindly inquire about the total publication cost applicable to our accepted manuscript, particularly with regard to the final number of published pages. We would appreciate it if you could confirm the exact amount that we are required to pay based on the current manuscript length.

In addition, we would like to respectfully ask whether it is possible to receive consideration or a fee waiver for the additional page charges, so that the payment could remain at the base fee for the first 8 pages only. We would be very grateful for any flexibility or guidance you may be able to offer in this regard.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration. We look forward to your kind response.

Kind regards,

Emmanuel Agung Nugroho

-- Paper ID# 29777

Dear Prof/Dr/Mr/Mrs. Emmanuel Agung Nugroho,

It is my great pleasure to inform you that your paper entitled "Yarn Inspection and Sorting System Using Robotic Vision and Machine Learning" is initially ACCEPTED and will be published in the forthcoming issue of the IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI), a Scopus indexed journal (see: <https://www.scopus.com/sourceid/21100901206>). Congratulations!!

We are pleased to inform you that the journal will publish your paper in a future issue (tentatively the June 2026 issue). Our layout and editing team will contact you to assist with the preparation of the final manuscript and the galley proofs. As part of the journal's publication requirements, authors are requested to submit a 15-minute video presentation of their paper (in English or Indonesian), recorded using Zoom or similar software and using the official virtual background template available at <https://bit.ly/iaes> ("Use template for new design"), with the presentation title, author name, and affiliation updated accordingly. The presentation should follow the IMRDC structure (Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion, and Conclusion), highlight the key findings, and provide sufficient methodological detail to ensure reproducibility. Please share the video file (MP4 format) via Google Drive or another file-sharing service and include your paper ID number and paper title when submitting.

Your cooperation is very appreciated

Sincerely yours,
Prof. Dr. Eugene Yu-Dong Zhang

Dear Dr. Emmanuel Agung Nugroho et al.,

I am Isma, writing on behalf of the Layout and Editing Team under the auspices of the IAES International Journal of Artificial Intelligence (IJ-AI). We are pleased to inform you that your manuscript is in the final stages before publication in an upcoming issue of the journal.

Please find attached the camera-ready version of your paper in PDF format. We kindly request your cooperation in carefully reviewing the entire document. Please pay special attention to the first page, particularly the title, author names, and affiliation.

We ask that you review all pages thoroughly and check for any typographical errors in the title, author names, email address, affiliations, contract number in the acknowledgment, citation names, and full names of abbreviations. No further changes can be made once the DOI is active. If you identify any typographical errors or necessary corrections, kindly mark them clearly and add your comments to the attached PDF.

Important Notes:

- We are unable to accept changes to the content, title, keywords, references, author order, or corresponding author details, except for typographical corrections.
- Once the paper is published and the DOI is active, no further corrections or replacements will be possible.

Kindly confirm and return your feedback within 1×24 hours to avoid delays in publication. If we do not receive any response within this timeframe, we will consider it as your agreement.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

"Please note that this email is only assigned for layout and editing purposes. For other communication purposes, reach us through the principal contact of the journal."

Kind Regards,
Isma
